REPORT ON TECHNOPEDIA 1.O COMPETITION

Timings: 02:30 PM onwards
Venue: College Auditorium
No. of Participants: 71
Organised For: First & second year students

According to the proposed plan, the Department of AI & ML in association with Logix organised a Technical Quiz Competition, TECHNOPEDIA 1.O which was held on Thursday, 22 December 2022.

The competition consisted of 3 rounds. The first round was the 'Selection Round', in which 18 interested teams were supposed to answer technology related MCQs, which let the judges to shortlist top 4 teams for the next round, 'Elimination Round'. The selected teams competed among each other to pave their path to the final round, 'Rapid Fire Round', the round which helped judges declare the winners.

The objective of the competition is to let students showcase their knowledge in a competitive environment. The main aim was to offer participants a platform to flaunt their skills and quiz their way to victory. It fostered a spirit of healthy competition and sportsmanship, both within and across teams, while challenging them to expand their knowledge base and develop critical thinking & problem solving skills.

The final judgement was made by
1. Ms. Esha Saxena (CSE Department)
2. Ms. Charul Dewan (IT Department)

The rubrics for the judgement were: Accuracy, Speed and Clarity (of rules as well as questions)
