A REPORT ON ANNUAL YOUTH PARLIAMENT, 2023

“VOX-JURIS Society”, ADGIPS, Centre of Legal Education organized Annual Youth Parliament, 2023 on 20th of December, 2023. The students of B.A.LL.B (H) and B.B.A.LL.B (H) first year and second year participated.

Objective:

The objective of the Youth Parliament is to strengthen the roots of democracy, inculcate healthy habits of discipline, tolerance of the view of others and to enable the student community to know about practices and procedures of the Parliament.

Brief Report:

The students of “VOX-JURIS Society”, ADGIPS and Centre of Legal Education organized Annual Youth Parliament, 2023. The event started by the first session of the day. The agenda of the Party Meet was the deliberation on the scope of the Live-in Relationship and its position in India. The student representative is the part of the Government, took the stand for the implementation of the legality of Live-in Relationship. The discussion started with the Leader of the House presenting the opening statement as well as laying down the idea of how the Government was trying to implement the Live-in Relationship. The first session concluded with the debate on the agenda somewhat stuck in the religious aspect and the opposition requested the Government to present a rough draft on “What grounds will then be Live-in Relationship implemented?”

The next session started with a flurry of properly researched debate between the Government and the opposition after the opposition presented a draft that agreed to only one point of the draft by the government. The student representative had active participation that debate, raising Point of Information as well as raising motions. This session was the most enlightening as well as enchanting amongst all the sessions. The quality of debate and the oration was magnificent as well as educational. The competition came to an end with comments from the panel of judges and with declaration of the result.

Results Declared as follows:-

- Best Speaker- Priyanka Gandhi, Anjali, B.B.A.LL.B (H), 2nd Year
